

RICHMOND ACADEMY ENDS BRIGHT YEAR

Medals Presented and Awards Made to Prize-Winners—Dr. Bowie Makes Address.

With commencement exercises last night, Richmond Academy closed one of the most successful years of its history. The finals were held in the Richmond College Chapel before a large audience. Following an address by Rev. W. Russell Bowie, D. D., diplomas were presented to eighteen graduates and the list of awards made known.

The officers of the class of 1913 were: Richard Hardaway Meade, Jr., president; Malcolm Upshur Pitt, vice president; Decatur Jones, secretary and treasurer; Hill Montague, Jr., historian; and Louis Moncure Latane, poet. The graduates were: William Evans Chapin, Lemuel Wilbur Cheatham, Isaac Diggs, Jr., Theodore Whitfield Harrison, Decatur Jones, Russell Meredith King, Louis Moncure Latane, Thomas William Mahone, Richard Hardaway Meade, Jr., Roger Moses Milhiser, Hill Montague, Jr., Malcolm Upshur Pitt, Henry Stern Raab, Donald Everett Riehan, James Caldwell Ecker and Armistead Churchill Young.

A faculty medal was presented to Malcolm Pitt for being the most helpful student to the school.

FAIRMOUNT HEARS
Legislative and Other Aspirants for Office Make Addresses.

About 500 citizens of Fairmount heard candidates for the House of Delegates and for the various city offices in the Fairmount Public School Building last night. Each of the candidates spoke, save John L. Satterfield, candidate for City Sergeant, who had a previous engagement, and who was represented by Bernard Gallagher, former Mayor of Fairmount. In the absence of his opponent, Wilbur J. Griggs spoke briefly, but was well received.

The legislative candidates took the platform in alphabetical order—James E. Cannon, Edwin P. Cox, James J. Creamer, John A. Curtis, Graham E. Hobson, Hill Montague, William M. Myers, J. Taylor Stratton and D. L. Toney—each getting a round of applause. The platform forms of the local candidates are much the same, and have been published. The candidates for the House are making an unusually clean fight, and never fail to compliment each other on the high quality of the old members for what they have done, and to assure the voters that no mistake will be made by the selection of any five out of the nine running. The candidates for Sheriff, J. Herbert Mercer, who is offering for re-election, and Stephen Johnson, his former deputy, made brief statements of their candidacy. The platform of the office was fixed by law, and each one is willing to accept the place if the voters insist on it. The three candidates for Commissioner of the Revenue, Henry E. Treason, Colonel Fred Pleasant and Peter Howie, were also brief, but the legislative candidates had taken up so much time talking about tax reform that when the absent candidates for the City Democratic Committee from Jefferson Ward were reached the audience had dwindled to a mere handful. The meeting was under the auspices of the Northeast Citizens' Association.

Surface Estate Near Tazewell Bought
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Tazewell, Va., June 6.—J. N. Harman and A. Z. Litz, Tazewell capitalists, today closed negotiations for the surface farm, just outside the corporate limits of the town, embracing about a hundred acres, for which they paid $2,000.

The auto owners of Tazewell are indignant over recent outrages committed by certain boys of the town and county in throwing glass and tacks in the road, and in other ways to terrorize the motorists. It is stated that it is almost impossible to pass through without having tires punctured. An effort will be made to find the guilty parties, who will be punished to the full extent of the law.

News of Petersburg
The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street (Telephone 1455).

Petersburg, Va., June 6, 1913.
The school board of Petersburg asked for an appropriation of $55,000 to enable the board to carry on properly the operations of the public schools during the next fiscal year, and this independent of the $14,000 received from the State. The Council on Tuesday night, in making up the budget for the next year, cut the appropriation asked for down to $41,724, a reduction of about $13,000. The item of $2,420 for raising the pay of teachers was cut out by the Council; the estimate of $2,500 for necessary repairs was cut to $500; the estimate of $2,000 for furniture and apparatus was cut to $750; the estimate of $2,000 for supplies was cut out entirely; the estimate of $4,500 for salaries of janitors was cut to $3,500; the estimate of $200 for medical inspection was cut out; the estimate of $1,500 was cut to $1,500.

At the meeting of the school board to-night, a committee from the board was appointed to appear before the Board of Aldermen at its next meeting and request it not to concur in the action of the Council in cutting down the appropriations asked by the school board.

The bids for the erection of the new Y. M. C. A. were opened to-night and the contract for the building was awarded to the Harrison Construction Company, of this city. There were seven bids, and Harrison Construction Company's bid of $77,190 was the lowest. The work will be commenced on June 16, and the contract calls for its completion in ten months from that date.

MEMORIAL DAY MONDAY.
Arrangements Completed for Observance at Petersburg.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association yesterday afternoon arrangements were completed for the observance of Confederate Memorial Day on Monday afternoon. The exercises will be simple, but as usual, impressive. The Rev. E. P. Dandridge, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will deliver the memorial address. There will be a parade of Confederate veterans and during the hours of the ceremonies business in the city will be closed. Thousands of people from Petersburg and the surrounding counties attend these beautiful and impressive ceremonies every year, and bring wreaths and flowers to place as tributes on the graves of the Confederate heroes.

WILL GO TO GETTYSBURG.
A. P. Hill Camp, Confederate Veterans, Decides to Attend.

A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans last night decided to attend the Gettysburg reunion, July 1-4, and appointed a committee consisting of W. B. Harrison, T. S. Beckwith, Robert Gilliam and Dr. W. E. Harwood, to make all necessary arrangements. It is expected that fully 100 and possibly more members of the camp, with the camp's fine drum corps, will go on the trip. The Sons of Veterans are raising a fund to pay the transportation expenses of such as feel unable to pay their fare and leave their business at the same time. The camp accepted the invitation of the National Memorial Association to participate in the memorial services on Monday.

General News Notes.
One hundred enthusiastic T. P. A. men of Petersburg, in forty or more gayly decorated automobiles, will swoop down on Richmond on Monday morning. They will be in line in the big T. P. A. parade and will see that Petersburg is not only well represented, but well advertised.

Powhatan and Tippecanoe Tribes of Red Men of this city will hold joint service in memory of the departed brethren Sunday night in the Memorial M. E. Church on Washington Street. Spanish peanuts have rapidly advanced in price lately. The nominal quotation today at $1.50 per bushel, with holders asking $1.70. The stock is almost entirely exhausted.

Yesterday afternoon at the manse of the Grace Street Presbyterian Church, Richmond, by the Rev. F. F. McFadden, D. D., Miss Lydia Alley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Alley, of Petersburg, and Clifford P. Hawkins, also of this city, were married.

Last evening at 9:30 o'clock, at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. W. T. A. Haynes, Mrs. Rosa Blake Tucker and William P. Mizell were married. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillie Lewis.

FUNDS OF SOCIETY TO BE INCREASED
Virginia Historical Organization Will Be Benefited by Dividends of Norfolk Bank.

At the last monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Virginia Historical Society, it was announced that the funds of the organization will be materially increased by the decision of the Citizens' Bank of Norfolk, Va., to increase its stock and declare a 50 per cent dividend. The society owns fifteen shares in this bank, a bequest of the late E. W. Jones.

Among recent gifts to the society are some old and rare magazines, which were received from Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson. It was announced that General Peter C. Rust, of New York, who died a short time ago, had bequeathed to the society old portraits of Colonel George Ekridge and his wife, of Westmoreland County. He was a prominent lawyer of his day and a member of the House of Burgesses. The portraits will be delivered when the estate is settled.

The following new members were elected: Life—G. Andrews Moriarty, Massachusetts. Annual—Charles T. McIntosh, Virginia; P. L. Reed, Virginia; Lieutenant John C. Pagan, U. S. A.; Judge L. H. Jones, Kentucky; Rev. C. H. B. Turner, Georgia; Mrs. A. Campbell, Virginia; Mrs. Anna Lewis Ramey, Texas; Henry A. Sampson, Virginia; Mrs. Agnes Dunlop Wright, Maryland; Pay Director J. S. Carpenter, U. S. N.; Mrs. William D. Mangum, Louisiana; Colonial Dames of the State of New York, University Club, New York City.

The question of erecting a fireproof building in the rear of the society's home and putting fireproof shutters on the present building was considered, and will be acted upon by a committee, some time this summer.

THE FEAST OF WEEKS FALLS ON WEDNESDAY
Class of Eight Children to Be Confirmed at Beth Ahabah by Dr. Calisch.

Shabuo, "The Feast of Weeks," also called "The Feast of the First Fruits," falls, according to the Jewish calendar, on the 6th of the Sivan. Its name is derived from the seven weeks which elapsed between the departure of the children of Israel from Egypt and their arrival at Mt. Sinai. Like its companion holiday, the Feast of Passover, it, too, has both an agricultural and a historical aspect. This was the early harvest season, when the first of the wheat, baked in two loaves of bread, was brought as an offering of gratitude, and as a token of man's dependence upon the goodness of God. Historically, it carries one back in memory to the promulgation of the Ten Commandments, when Israel accepted the new moral code and religious legislation, and was aroused for the first time to the consciousness of his new spiritual task and destiny. The Ten Commandments were the Magna Charta of religion.

Shabuo has gained a stronger and a more impressive hold to-day by entwining its symbolism about the impressionable child. "Confirmation" is the youth's feast of self-consecration. Shabuo has a distinctly modern and indispensable appeal to the individual. It teaches, first of all, that religion, as a necessity of life, is the actuating motive and sanction of personal, social and national character. Secondly, it teaches the new moral code and religious freedom as the most highly prized privilege and possession of the human race. The feast falls this year on Wednesday, June 11. Services will be held at Beth Ahabah Synagogue on Tuesday evening at 6:30 and on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

At the morning service the confirmation exercises will be confirmed, under the leadership of Dr. E. N. Calisch. The children are Leah Binswanger, Henriette Suman, Wilhelmina Newman, Ruth Wallerstein, Arnold Weinberg and Jack Lewit.

POWERS ENTERS RACE.
Aspires to Represent Caroline in House of Delegates.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bowling Green, Va., June 6.—David B. Powers, Jr., has announced his candidacy for the House of Delegates from Caroline County, and has filed his name with the chairman and paid his fee to the treasurer. Mr. Powers has represented this county several times, and the contest here will be a spirited one from the start, as both Mr. Powers and Mr. Evans, who is also a candidate, are popular in the county, and have a number of friends.
